Business and Professional Women/Raleigh

April 2013

Announcement

We Are Taking Networking To The Next Level!

Our group is an all-volunteer team that works to provide quality and relevant programs; delivering the knowledge necessary for you to become a successful professional in your working environment. At BPW we want every event you attend to be productive and successful.

When you attend our events, we want you to learn about new resources, make new professional contacts, get new leads or…just have a good time!

In the spirit of helping you get the most of your participation, I am excited to announce the launch of a new networking and learning format at BPW dinner meetings called: Roundtable Networking. Registration and Business Networking will continue to start at 5:30pm. Beginning promptly at 6:00pm attendees will be seated at their dinner table of choosing. Tables will be marked Table Topic #1 or Table Topic #2 – with Facilitators assigned to help guide the discussions. Roundtable discussions will continue through dinner and end as the Program begins.

Our aim is to provide a relaxed and fun environment for you to share insights and foster the contacts you make.

We will kick-off the Roundtable Networking format next week during our April 23 dinner event: Scholarship Presentation with 2-Time Emmy Award Winner Willa Brigham.

If you haven't done so yet, please be sure to secure your seat by registering by EOD Friday April 19.

Details for the April 23 Roundtable Networking discussions:

Table Topic #1: Habits of Highly Successful People
What are the unique qualities that will get you a top spot at work?

Table Topic #2: Do Women Really Want it All?
Do women really want to climb that ladder and fill more leadership positions, or is it simply that companies aren't offering what they want in life?

I look forward to seeing you there!

Laura Hartwick, BPW/Raleigh President
